SENATOR WHITNEY: Yes, Senator Carpenter, would he yield to a question?

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter will you yield?

SENATOR WHITNEY: This presumes that the fiscal analyst will select those which do not have fiscal impact?

SENATOR CARPENTER: I presume he's already done that on this sheet.

SENATOR WHITNEY: I see. This presumes that. Okay.

PRESIDENT: The Chair would concur in that presumption. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, I'm not going to be able to be here this afternoon but there is one bill I'd like to vote against, that's LB 268 so if that could be held until tomorrow. That won't--its fate won't be changed but I do want to cast a vote and not just say I would have voted such and such a way so if 268 could be held until tomorrow then I wouldn't object to it.

PRESIDENT: Well, let's see what develops here. Senator Carpenter, do you care to--

SENATOR CARPENTER: I'd be glad to amend the motion to that condition.

PRESIDENT: Alright then, actually you're asking to bracket 268 until tomorrow?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Alright, are there any objections to bracketing 268 on final reading then? Until tomorrow? Hearing no objections, so ordered, 268 will be bypassed this afternoon. Alright then, the question is, shall the rules be suspended then and the bills on final reading taken up this afternoon after recess? All those in favor of suspending the rules to take up tomorrow's final reading today, vote aye. All those opposed vote no. You're asking for a suspension of the rules and that motion would take 30 votes.
